

Anti-Bullying Policy

Introduction

All children and young people have the right to go about their daily lives without the fear of being threatened, assaulted or harassed. No one should underestimate the impact that bullying can have on a person's life. It can cause high levels of distress, affecting young people's well-being, behaviour, academic and social development right through adulthood.

Bodywork Company is committed to providing a caring, friendly and safe environment for all of our students so they can train in a relaxed and secure atmosphere free from oppression and abuse. Bullying is an anti-social behaviour and affects everyone. All types of bullying are unacceptable at the college and will not be tolerated. All students should feel able to talk about it and when bullying behaviour is brought to our attention, prompt and effective action will be taken. Students are made aware that they should feel able to report bullying immediately, know who to report it to and to feel safe.

What Is Bullying?

"Bullying behaviour abuses and imbalance of power to repeatedly and intentionally cause emotional or physical harm to another person or group of people. Isolated instances of hurtful behaviour, teasing or arguments between individuals would not be seen as bullying" (Torfaen definition 2008)

Bullying generally takes one of four forms:

- Indirect – being unfriendly, spreading rumours, excluding, tormenting (e.g. hiding bags or belongings).
- Physical – pushing, kicking, hitting, punching, slapping or any form of violence.
- Verbal – name-calling, teasing, threats, sarcasm.
- Cyber – All areas of internet misuse, such as nasty and/or threatening emails, misuse of blogs, gaming websites, internet chat rooms and instant messaging, mobile threats by text messaging and calls, misuse of associated technology, i.e. camera and video facilities.

Although not an exhaustive list, common examples of bullying include:

- Racial bullying.
- Homophobic bullying.
- Bullying based on disability, ability, gender, appearance or circumstance.

Why Is It Important to Respond to Bullying?

Bullying hurts. No one deserves to be bullied. Everybody has the right to be treated with respect. Students who are bullying need to learn different ways of behaving, and may be offered support to help them do this.

Bodywork recognises that we have a responsibility to respond promptly and effectively to issues of bullying.
